WARRIOR 1974

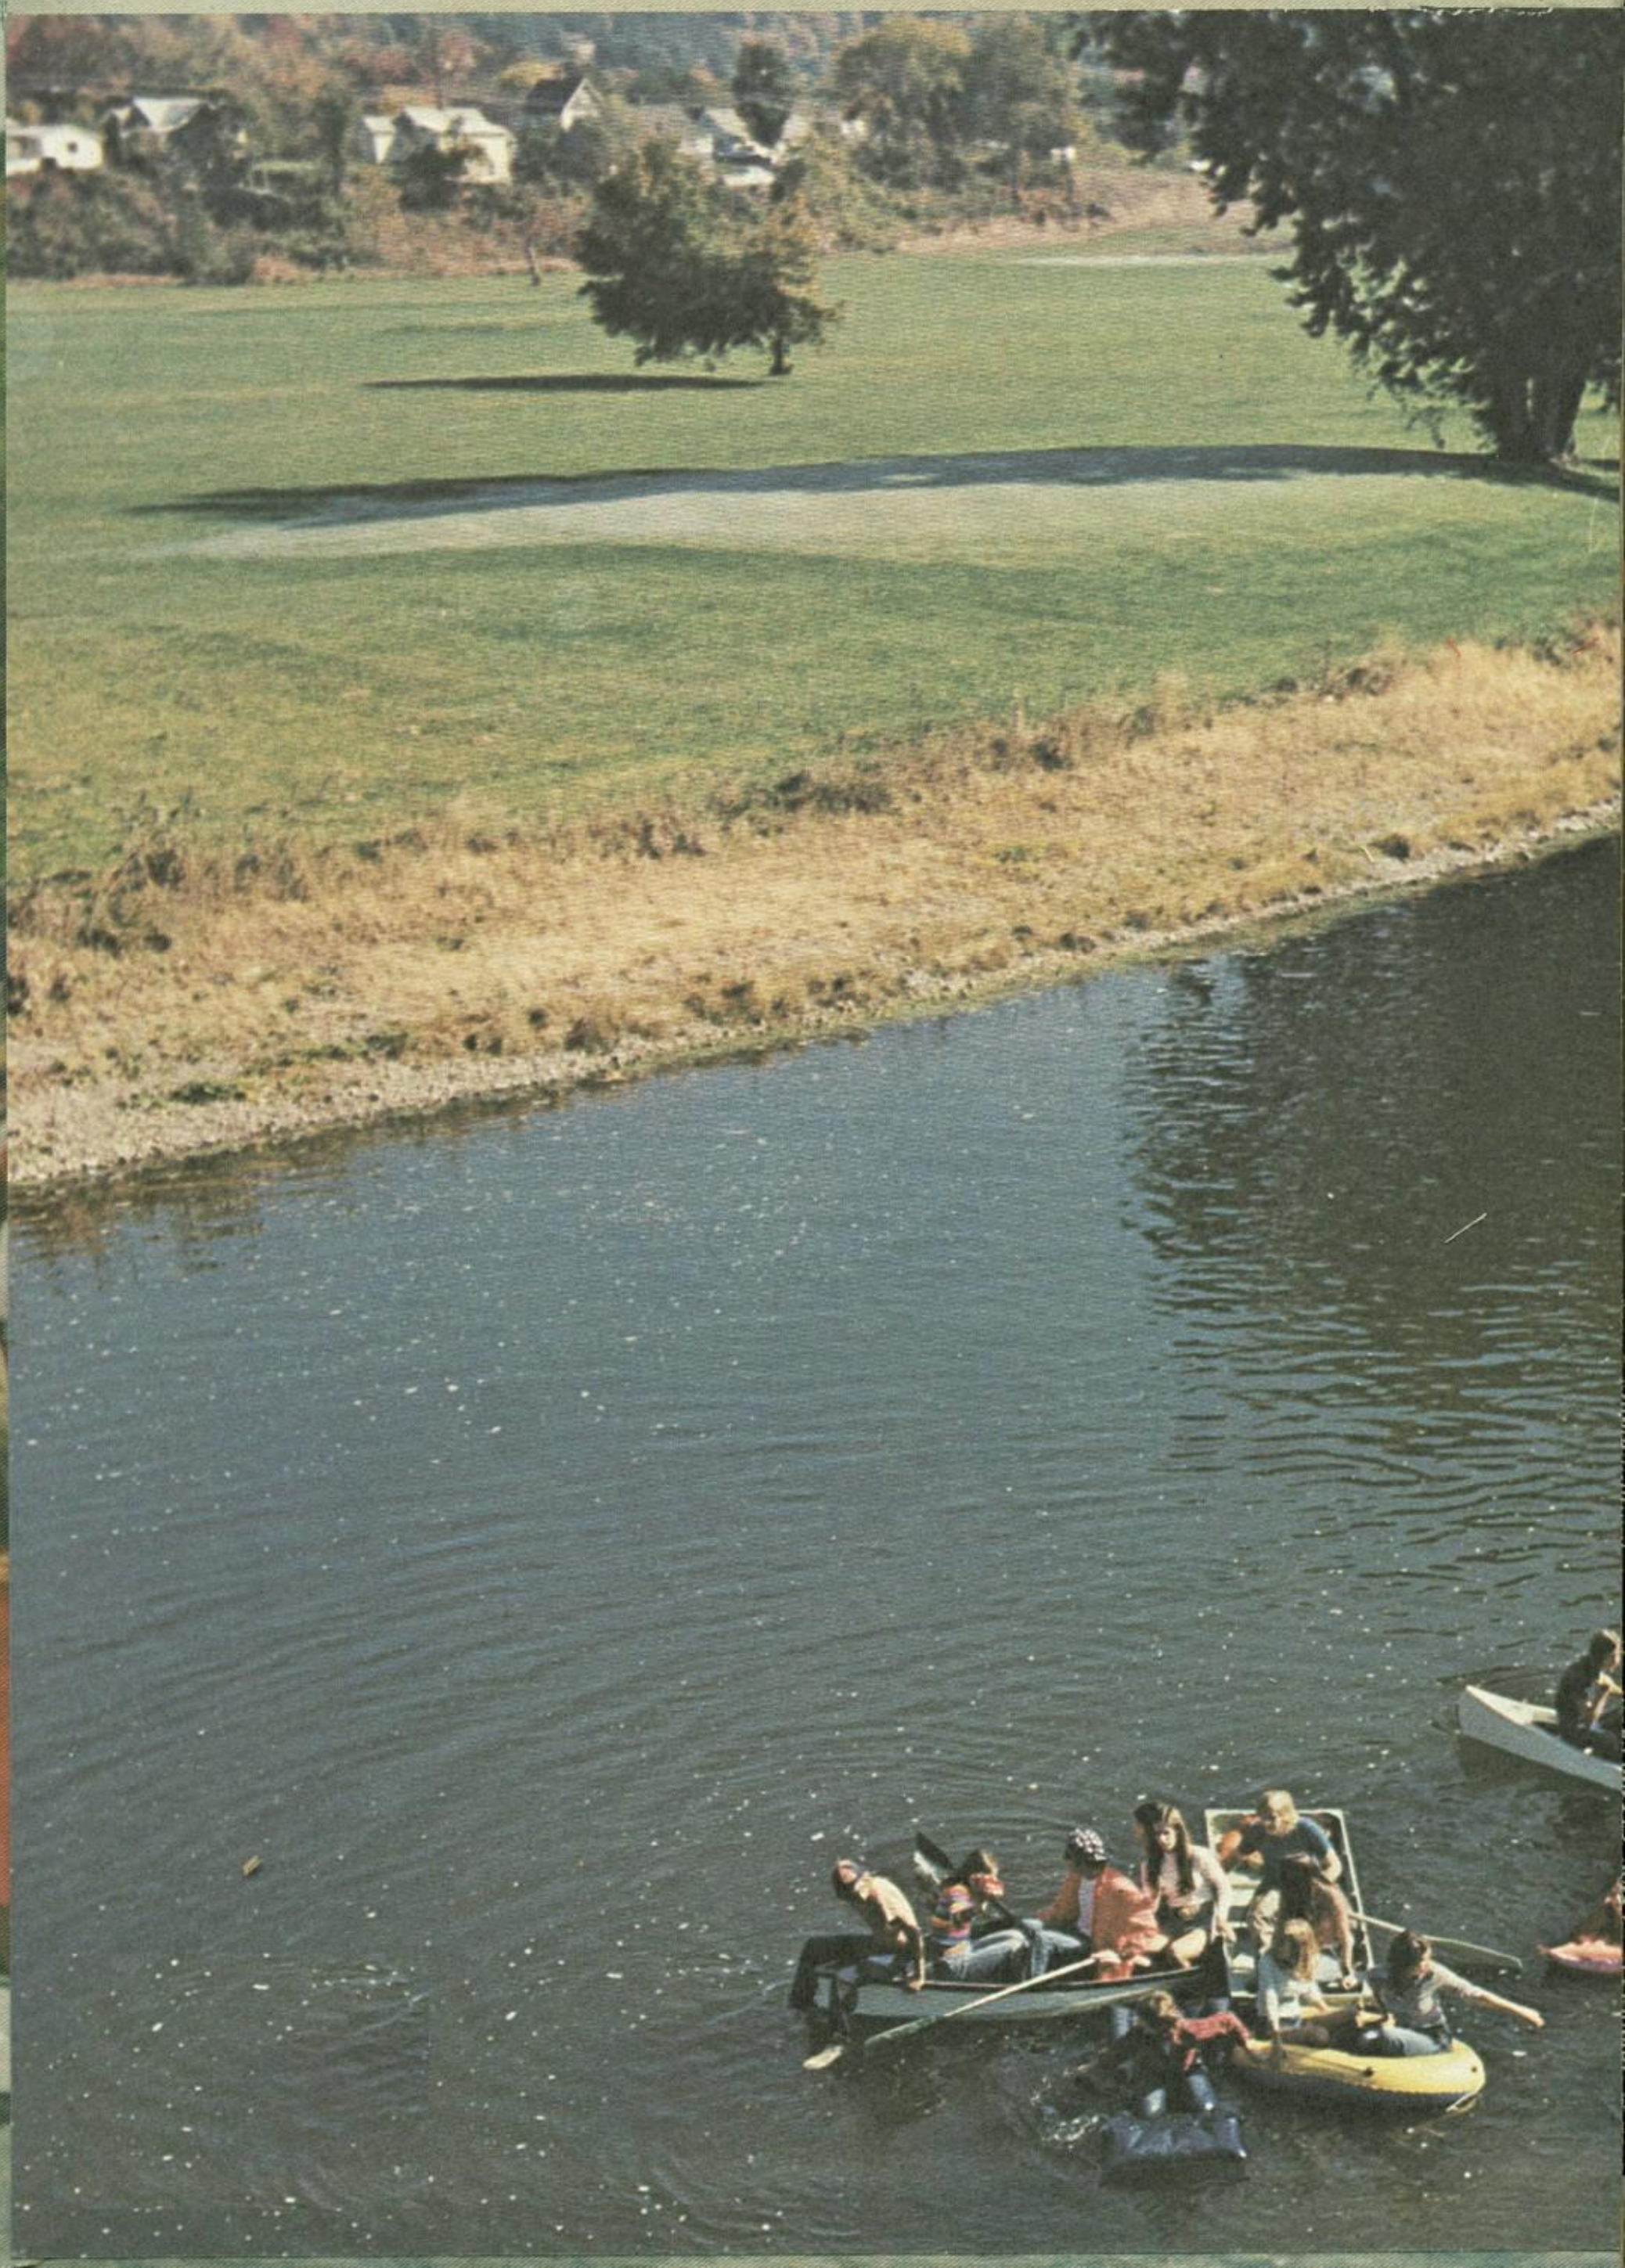
MARY BRADER



HI MOM!
74

How pleasant it is, at the end of the day,
No follies to have to repent;
But reflect on the past, and be able to say,
That my time has been properly spent.

— Taylor

Let's Face It

Morning was a melting pot of happy anticipations, heartaches, contentment, restlessness and exuberance as each student prepared to face the oncoming day in his unique way. Twenty-seven hundred people, each having different backgrounds, ideals and goals, represented our whole school world and colored it with variation.

You'll Find Me In The Yellow Pages

Some of us were bookworms, some of us social butterflies, but all of us enjoyed our free time at C.V. in our own special way. Whether with the whole student body, a group of close friends, someone special, or alone, these moments left memories of happy leisure times.

Faces Mirror

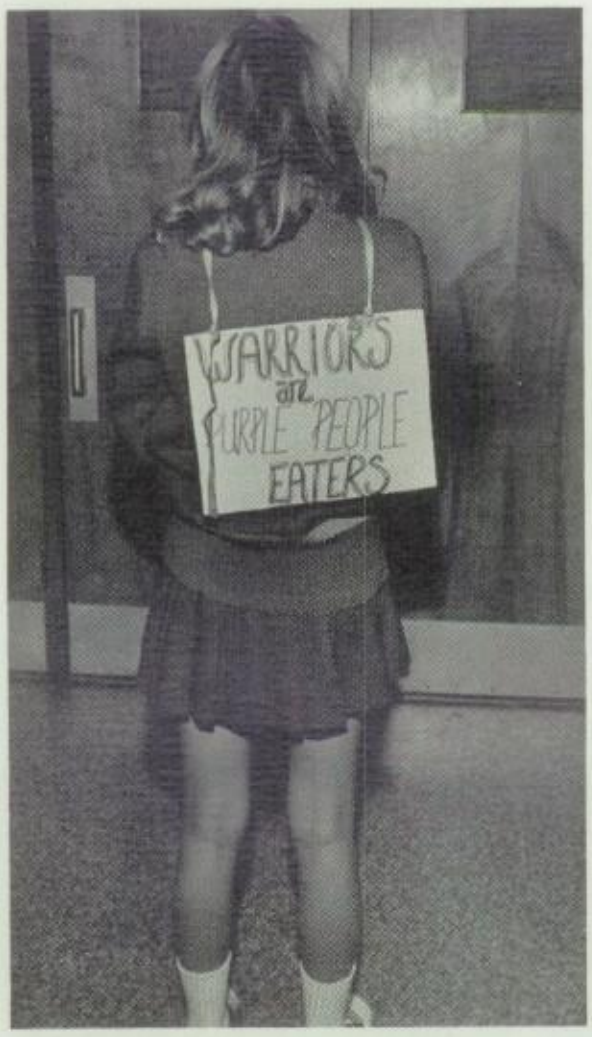
Flashes of contrast were reflected in faces everywhere. What force could have motivated such mass involvement?



WARRIORS are PURPLE PEOPLE EATERS

Eat 'em Up! Eat 'em Up!

As vivid leaves swept the surrounding hillsides the magical moments of the football season signified something personal to each participant — cheerleader, band member, concession stand worker, graduate, team fan, anxious parent, coach or player. Everyone's contribution was important and necessary as C.V. spirit soared higher.

Hit The Showers!

After several hours of tiring brain-work relief was sought by many in the form of intramurals or team competition. For whatever personal reasons athletes had for competing, they all enjoyed themselves, but few came out heroes.

What Would Critics Say?

A strong and growing love for the arts continued to lure people into drama club, musical and artistic activities. Interpreting the works of others enhanced group spirit for some and individualism for others.

Monotony Mounts

The inflexibility of the typical C.V. schedule led to an active social life in the halls. Occasionally, boredom was relieved by a dynamic teacher, a trip to the bookstore or mass exit to the library from study hall.

When I Was Seventeen . . .

Seventeen, thirty-seven, fifty-seven . . . all ages worked together during the school day. Leisure time was used and sometimes abused by each in his own way, sometimes to the dismay of others.

It Was A Very Good Year?

School reflects life itself. In the 1974 school year, life was anything but ordinary with thermostats turned down to 68. Methods of getting warmer ranged from adding more clothing, to exuberantly complaining. Both seemed to accomplish their purpose. Despite fuel shortages, cars still spun up the driveway to fill the student parking lot on cold, dark mornings. If there was any objection to coming to school in the dark, it was overshadowed on days like "Greaser Day" by mid-morning smiles.

Oh, What This Sweet Hour Yields!

The spark of tradition burst into flame once again this year with the crownings of King Football and Homecoming Queen. Patti Tombs was caught unaware as last year's queen, Marty Peterson, quickly placed the crown upon her head. Candidates and escorts from left to right were: Drew Wenn, Mary Mack, Ed Krisko, Pam Knox, Val Mason, Bill Vanca, Alice Perkins, Paul Krzyznieski, Patti Tombs and Hank Stoehr. Our somewhat surprised King Football, Bob Lally, was elected by the team. His crowning added excitement to the annual King Football Dance.

You Gotta Be Kiddin'!

When students weren't hovered over stacks of textbooks during a routine day, time was spent doing things that seemed quite surprising to some and quite annoying to others. It all depended upon who you were, what you stood for and your sense of humor.

French Club participated in the big event of the school year for the language clubs — International Night. Their activities for that evening were a French cafe, a bakery for pastries, folk-dances and displays. They went to a French Luncheon at the American Civic Association. The members raised money by selling caramel apples and baked goods at a home football game. At Christmas time, they celebrated the holidays with a French cake.

Latin Club again had a busy year. For their annual Roman banquet, they dressed in togas as the early Romans did. At International Night, they wore the customary attire of a Roman, carried on some cultural traditions and sold Latin style food. Near the end of the school year, they took a trip to New York City as they have in the past.

Spanish Club's activities for International Night included the popular bullfight, the Mexican Hat Dance, the Cha-Cha Dance and a fencing act. In January, the club went to see a performance of Spanish singers. Members entertained at a nursing home and to raise money they worked a basketball concession and also showed movies to elementary school kids. In March they held a dance with French Club.

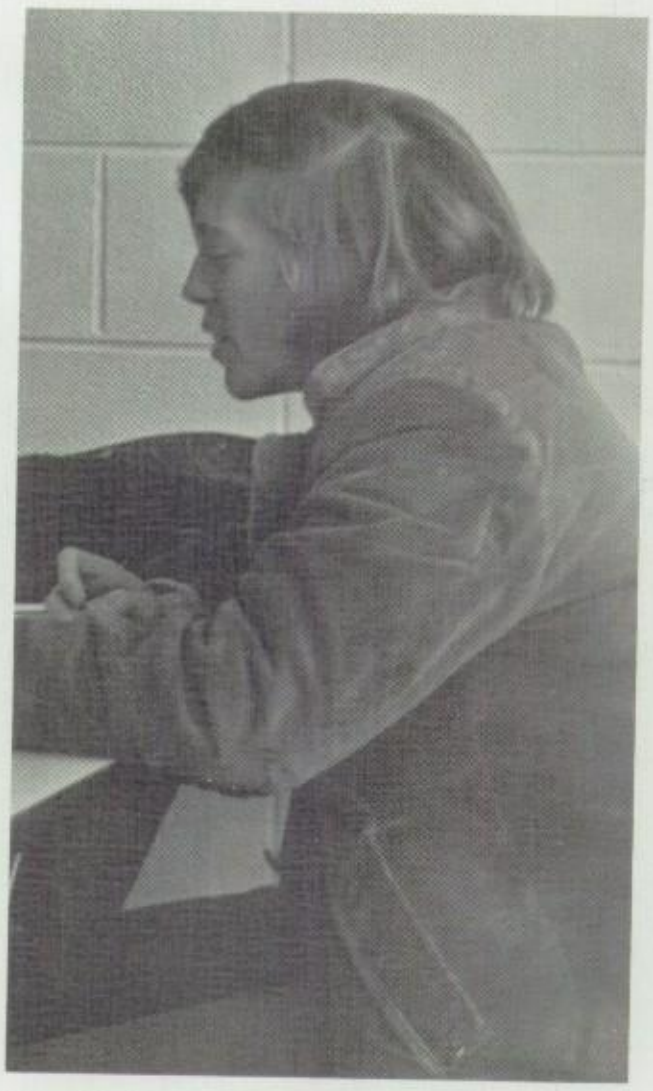
ary, do we really have to stay here all night?"

Key Club and the cheerleaders sponsored the King Football Dance in November, and produced programs for the home football and basketball games. They participated in the upkeep of the school grounds and as a conservation project, distributed boxes to all homerooms for the collection of used paper. Perhaps the most drastic change was the admittance of girls into the organization.



Dave Hotaling thinks about the upcoming convention.

The Business Club worked a concession stand for a football game which proved to be a learning experience. At some of their meetings they enjoyed the tips given to them by speakers, such as, a medical secretary, a legal secretary and a secretary from a probation office.

Yearbook Staff members learned much about the art of self-expression despite blank negatives, broken cameras, missed deadlines, clashing temperaments and personal sacrifices. However most agreed that the satisfaction and enjoyment outweighed the frustration.

Drama Club performed HELLO DOLLY last spring, which was a smashing success. The kids were exhausted but they enjoyed every minute of it. They had help from the music department with the orchestra. Last fall they performed SUITABLE FOR HANGING which was also a big hit.

The Stage Crew is the backbone of all productions. They made all of the props and background and they were kept on their toes with the lighting.

DRAMA CLUB OFFICERS: Sergeant-at-Arms Tom Dunlop, Secretary Pam Knox, Treasurer Rick Thorne, Historian Amy Peterson, Vice-President Patti Tombs, President Ed Krisko.

Mr. Fako listens intently as Sally Kolberg performs at her lesson.

The Junior High Band performed at three evening concerts as well as a Junior High school Christmas assembly and a concert for the elementary schools. They raised money by selling season concert tickets.

All but three of the musicians in the Stage Band were returning instrumentalists. Besides their well-liked performance of jazz at concerts, they were in the spotlight at the WNBF television station while being taped for The Morning Show. The performance, along with an interview of the directors, Mr. Buchmaier and Mr. Cooley, went well.

Glee Club members agree that extra hours of practice make an extra good concert.

Madrigals is a select group of thirteen from Choir that is directed by Mr. Buchmaier. They practiced at night and performed all over the Triple Cities area.

Choir was hardworking this past year, not only with their practicing, but also with money raising projects. They sold season concert tickets, stationery and worked the concession stand at home wrestling matches. This money went toward year end awards and the spring exchange trip.

The Glee Club consists of ninth grade girls who performed at the Sr. High Concerts. They raised money from concert ticket sales.

Cheerleaders Are All Right

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders sparked a feeling of spirit within fans, as well as athletes. Each week there was a special spirit gimmick to activate team enthusiasm. Examples are: lollipops printed with "Lick the Bulldogs," and a puzzle, of which each member held a piece. A party was given at the end of each season for the players.

J.V. Cheerleaders spark up spirit for the game.

Cheerleaders return to the bench after welcoming their opponents.

Besides the regular cheering at football and basketball games, the Varsity Cheerleaders entertained the fans at the first wrestling match, with some grappler spirit. They sponsored a game between the faculty and the T.C. Jets in order to earn money for cheerleading camp during the summer. They worked the Booster Club concession stand for a T.C. Jets game at C.V. Each squad member served several times as a co-captain for a game.

Barry Heim performs one of Varsity Club's duties, that makes him popular with coffee-loving teachers.

Running the Jets' concession stand and popcorn machine for all home football and basketball games this year was not all that Varsity Club did. Members served as guides at the Senior High Open House and faithfully ran the coffee concession for all appreciative teachers. Having more funds than most clubs, Varsity Club spent money in a variety of ways, including the purchase of a new coffee machine, the donation of money for Vestal and C.V. memorial plaques and the presentation of the achievement award given to a deserving senior at graduation.

The C.V. "brain trust."

Coach Travis found the going rough in his rookie year as a head coach in the S.T.A.C. A 2-7 record may not be impressive, but several close games were lost mainly due to inexperience and injuries to key players.

Highly regarded M.E. was held in check in the season opener until an injury to quarterback Mike Hall stalled a C.V. offensive attack and weakened the defensive secondary. The State's #1 ranked team, Vestal, was held to an 8-8 tie for 3 quarters, showing a great effort by the entire Warrior team.

The outlook for the '74 Warrior team is a very bright one because of many returning players, including Ron O'Neil, Chuck Zimmer, and Mark Dow. Outstanding individual efforts were shown this year by: Kevin Sabin, who led the team in receiving, Ron O'Neil, who led the team in rushing and Q.B. Mike Hall, in spite of his injuries, who led the team in passing.

The '73 J.V. Warriors finished the season with a 5-4 record under Coach Dave Marble's direction. Sophomore quarterback Dave Canale set a new J.V. football record by passing for 319 yards in one game. Steve Pert did an outstanding job of rushing, including having 222 yards on 25 carries in one game. The defensive output was led by Ken Potter.

The Chenango Valley cross-country team went through a transitional year, posting a one win, six loss record. The young Warriors show great promise for the future with junior team captain Bruce Heim experiencing his first year on the varsity squad. The rest of the team was composed of all freshmen. Tim MacGregor and Jack Poodiak came on the strongest of these as the season progressed. With continued improvement from the entire squad, Coach McDaniel is hoping for a big year in '74.

GIRLS TENNIS: Dale Hanna, Jamie Transue, Rhonda Fortran, Deb Salmon, Sue Atwater, Michele Chape, Coach Aswad, Lynn Mullen, Sue Romanczuk, Beth Fox, Ann McGarry, Cathy Ling, Charm Foster.

The Warrior golf team, led by Junior Gary Durbin, completed a successful season with a 6 win, 8 loss record. Gary Durbin had an undefeated record of 14 wins, no losses, and one tie. He also won First Team All-S.T.A.C. honors. Other mentionables are Seniors Tony Hurst, Ron Harting, and Alan Simonis, and Juniors Doug MacGregor and Mike LaMonica. The team is looking forward to the upcoming sectionals on May 30.

The 1973 girls' tennis team finished with a 5-4 record this year. The team suffered three tough losses this season, losing each by only one point. Outstanding individual talent was shown by Rhonda Fortran, with an 8-0 record, and Sue Atwater, with a 6-1 record. Miss Aswad has confidence in next year's team, even though five out of the seven starting girls are graduating.

The 1973 girls' swim team showed much improvement due to hard work. Chenango Valley sent 5 girls to represent the Warriors in the sectionals. They were: Nina McPheeters, Anne Davis, Amy Peterson, Andy Hill and Mindy Warren. There is a bright outlook for next year's team because of the loss of only four graduating members.

Season's Slipping Through A Net

The 1974 Varsity basketball team completed a tough season with an eight win, six loss record. The team was led in scoring by Mike Hall with a fifteen point per game average. Perry Kendrick, injured when the season began, came on strongly as the season progressed. The season was highlighted by an overtime victory over Central in which Chuck Bruet hit on a last second shot, to win it for the Warriors. The team has very strong potential with six returning players from this year's squad and several juniors on the Junior Varsity team seeing plenty of playing time.

The Warrior Grapplers may, at last, be going somewhere. After years of frustration, Coach Moyer has built a very strong team with a bright outlook for the future. The highlight of dual meet season this year was the upset of a strong Owego team which, at the time, was riding an eight match win streak. Co-captain Mark Dow moved up to heavyweight for the match and his victory clinched the win for C.V. At the S.T.A.C. wrestling championships, Co-captain John Kocak placed first in the 132 pound weight class. Senior Co-captain Kevin Williams led the team in pins by flattening nine of his opponents. This year Chenango Valley hosted its own Christmas Wrestling Tournament and placed third in the team standings. John Kocak was the 132 pound weight class champion and Mark Dow and Mike Lamb each won second place honors.

Small Dreams Of Hitting The Big Time

The J.V. basketball team, under the leadership of first year Coach Sestak, finished with an 8-6 win-loss record. The team was led by sophomores John Tarbell and Dave Canale and junior Mark Bidwell.

The Freshman basketball team finished the year with an 8 win 6 loss record. Outstanding performances were shown by Sylvester McCray and Chris Oswald.

GOING OUT WITH A BANG

The 1973 Warrior baseball team finished a tremendous season with a 14-2 record. The successful season can be credited to the hitting of Bill Tarbell and Rick Harrison, who led the team in batting with averages of .400 and .381 respectively. Along with batting, the team's outstanding pitching staff consisted of Ken Cook and Marc Pickett.

The Warriors won the Suburban C division but lost a close game to J.C. in the semi-finals for the S.T.A.C. championship. The team reached the semi-finals in Section 4 play but lost to Ithaca.

Coach DeCastro has only 2 starting Varsity returnees this year, Mike Hall and Ron O'Neil, but there is strong potential coming up from the J.V. team.

The 1973 track team ended its season with a perfect six win, no loss record. The season was highlighted by a triangular meet sweep over Cortland and Catholic Central. The team was led by seniors Dick Pierce and Mike McNally and junior John Wilbur. Notable returnees are John Wilbur, Rick Jones, and Barry and Bruce Heim.

The 1973 tennis team sported a nine win, five loss record. This year's team will be minus the two top doubles teams from last year, Cox-Benko and Mackey-DeCastro. Coach Wilson is hoping for a good season in 1974 with all 5 singles players returning.

THE ONLY WAY TO WIN

It takes a little courage
And a little self-control
And some grim determination,
If you want to reach the goal.
It takes a deal of striving,
And a firm and stern-set chin,
No matter what the battle,
If you really want to win.

There's no easy path to glory,
There's no rosy road to fame.
Life, however we may view it,
Is no simple parlor game;
But its prizes call for fighting,
For endurance and for grit;
For rugged disposition
And a "don't-know-when-to-quit."

You must take a blow or give one,
You must risk and you must lose,
And expect that in the struggle
You will suffer from the bruise.
But you mustn't wince or falter,
If a fight you once begin;
Be a man and face the battle —
That's the only way to win.

The Way We Were

Days melted into weeks and weeks quickly into years. There was pain and there was happiness. As human nature will have it, the better, joyful times, no matter how few and far between will live within our hearts. They will paint within our minds a hazy, peaceful impression of Chenango Valley whenever we reflect upon the way we were.

Retrospection

"When we find ourselves,
We will find how very much there is
For which to live."

How pleasant it is, at the end of the day,
No follies to have to repent,
But reflect on the past, and be able to say,
That my time has been properly spent.

— Taylor
